

The Venue

Melbourne University's beautiful Ormond College is now 141 years old with cloistered walkways, courtyards and gardens. The magnificent dining hall has vaulted oregon beams and stained glass windows.

Each class is held in one of four large dance studios with tarket. All studios are on campus.

All students will work in classes suited to their individual standard, offering a wonderful experience to work with and learn about students studying different methods of dance from all parts of Australia and Overseas.
